

AMBER CREWS

LACTATION ADVOCATE, FOUNDER,
DIRECTOR, MAKER, MAMA

amber.wildlyinclusive@gmail.com

amber.crews@breastfeedingcommunities.org

919.282.4433

Based in Durham, NC, Amber is a passionate homeschooling mama who volunteers in peer-to-peer lactation support, advocates for LGBTQ+ human milk, is a Founder and Director for a brand-new ALC Co-Op, teaches infant potty training, and runs a small maker's business of herbal and handmade goods.

EXPERIENCE

LGBTQ+ Committee Chair, Breastfeed
Durham, May 2020 - Present

- Lead monthly meetings, working toward the 10 steps to establishing a Breastfeeding Friendly Community within the LGBTQ+ lens
- Participate in community outreach programs
- Lead Coordinator for Durham's only annual Queer Family Planning Health Fair

La Leche League Leader, Durham, January 2021 - Present

- Lead in-person, monthly peer-to-peer lactation support group
- Answer helping calls & texts with information and support
- Community events

EDUCATION

UNC of Chapel Hill, Bachelors of English Language, minor in Linguistics. GPA 3.95. Class of 2007

Wildly Inclusive Learning Collective, Founder,
Executive Director, April 2024 - Present

- Co-Founder of a fully inclusive, self-directed agile learning center
- Executive Director for programing, growth, and community involvement
- Board President

COMMUNITY ROLES

Volunteer weekly forest school facilitator,
January 2018-present

Monthly cohost for unschooling parents bookclub/support August 2023-Present

BUSINESSES

Amber's Handcrafts & Herbs

- ambershandcrafts.etsy.com

Go Diaper Free of Durham

- Facebook.com/groups/gdfdurham